VOLUME VI, NUMBER 60

JOHN HUMPHREY IS THIRD ARBITER

Carmen Decide to Permit Member of State Board to Act in Settlement of Trouble

DECISION IS REACHED TODAY

Prospects Now Bright for Avoidance of Second Strike on Local Street Railway

In order to avoid another strike if possible, and to get a fair settlement of the differences existing between the carmen and La Crosse City Railway company as soon as possible, the street railway employees' union through its executive committee today authorized Fred H. Hartwell, the carmen's arbitrator to accept as third member of the arbitration board John Humphrey of Milwaukee, member of the state board of arbitration.

The executive committee of the carmen together with Mr. Fred Fay, a representative of the national executive committee of the carmen's union, and Mr. Hartwell, have been holding continuous sessions in the offices of Mr. Hartwell today. The agreement was reached at 3 o'clock.

W. J. Ferris, the arbitrator for the company, was not in the city today, but a communication informing him of Arbitrator Hartwell's concession has been sent to him. The communication is as follows:

"La Crosse, Wis.
"Dear Sir:—In my communication to you under date of July 22, 1909, I stated that I did not wish to assume the position that you and I are the only fair minded men in the city of La Crosse and asked that we consider La Crosse men before going outside. I am still of the opinion that we have a great many fair and impartial citizens able and willing to assist us in arbitrating the question remaining between the company and the men and have had a large list yet to submit.

"However, you absolutely refuse to submit or consider the name of any citizen of La Crosse in this connection and in view of the loyal manner in which the people stood with the men during the lockout and considering that a strike would greatly inconvenience these very people after talking over the situation with International Representative Fay and the employees I hereby accept as third arbitrator to act with me Mr. John Humphrey of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, member of the state board of arbitration.

"Respectfully,
"(Signed)
"FRED H. HARTWELL."
The position of the carmen and Mr. W. J. Ferris, representing the car company, is shown in a mass of correspondence between F. H. Hartwell, representing the men, and Mr. Ferris. Mr. Hartwell submitted a list of about forty names of prominent local men, suggesting his satisfaction with the selection of any one of them as the third member of the arbitration board. He declared his belief that himself and Mr. Ferris were not the only fair minded men in La Crosse. Replying, Mr. Ferris said that he was not acquainted with any of the men whose names were suggested and therefore could not be considered prejudiced against them as individuals. He declared, however, that he considered the members of the state arbitration board better equipped to handle the matter and said he would readily agree to the selection of any one of this board or any member of the state rate commission as the third arbitrator. He declared he believed this was consistent and fair to all parties concerned, as a local man would not be free to act, for fear of injuring his personal business, as his decision was bound to be unsatisfactory to one side or the other, whichever way he decided existing differences. Therefore, he said, it was better that an outside man be called in.

In the matter of the sliding wage scale Mr. Ferris offered 18 cents per hour the first year, 19 cents the second, 20 cents the third, 21 cents the fourth, and 22 cents the fifth, and time and one-half for overtime. The present scale is 17 cents the first year, 19 cents the following two years, and 21 cents thereafter, with time and one-half for overtime. Mr. Hartwell objected to this on the ground that it did not increase the second and fourth year men, and also that other men soon reached classes where they would not enjoy their increase.

Vote to Strike.
At an early hour Sunday morning, after all employees were in from their runs, a union meeting was held.

WRECK OF THE ELKS' RIO GRANDE SPECIAL

The accompanying views are of the wreck of the special Elks' train on the Rio Grande, at Sisco, Utah, July 10, upon which were Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Gatterdam and Mrs. Gatterdam's sister, Chris Burns and W. S. Meiklejohn of this city, and Fred Schaefer, exalted ruler of the Winona lodge. The views were received today from Dr. Gatterdam, who says he was asleep in the second coach when the crash came. He marvels that all were not killed. As it was, three trainmen died in the wreck, the awfulness of which is depicted in these illustrations. The left engine is resting upon the trucks of the baggage car, the upper portion, of which was splintered. Dr. Gatterdam says the local people are having the time of their lives.

THE LEWD AND THE NUDE IN PULPIT

Preacher Threatened With Persecution for Flash-Light Pictures of Women's Ankles

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 26.—Prosecutions are threatened today as the result of the action of Rev. G. L. Morrill, local minister, in flashing upon a screen during a sermon photographs of the ankles of some of the prominent women of Minneapolis.

The photographs were used to illustrate a lecture by the minister on "The Lewd and the Nude," and the 25 pictures were intended to show how far some Minneapolis women go in their endeavor to display their figures to advantage. The preacher showed pictures of several nude paintings, comparing the latter with the former.

Rev. Morrill said he took all of his photographs last Saturday on Nicollet avenue, Minneapolis' fashionable street.

$40,000 IN DIAMONDS IN BRAKEMAN'S BAG

NEW YORK, July 26.—When W. Robelin, a brakeman on the Long Island railroad, found a satchel in his train last Wednesday he did not foresee circumstances that would change his entire life. He opened the satchel and nearly swooned. He thought some one had moved the De Beers mines to America. There were $40,000 worth of diamonds laying in the bag.

Robelin turned the bag over to the railroad officials and it was later claimed by Mrs. Theresa Schwab, New York.

Robelin was given $100 in cash and two new suits of clothes, two weeks' vacation with full pay and the promise of a life time job at $100 a month as soon as he returns from his vacation.

A. R. ANDERSON WILL TEACH AT EVANSTON

CHICAGO, Ill., July 26.—Andrew R. Anderson, who graduated from the high school at La Crosse, Wis., in 1894, taking first honors, after completing the four years' course in three years, and who has since distinguished himself as an educator, has been appointed assistant professor of Latin at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. The announcement was made today.

Prof. Anderson comes from Princeton University where he has been assistant professor of Latin since 1905. He graduated with honors from the Wisconsin State University and his career has been a brilliant one.

FIRST "GLIDDEN" TOUR A SUCCESS

Eleven Cars Make Run to Winona for Dinner Yesterday in Fine Time

The La Crosse Automobile club's first "Glidden" tour made to Winona and return yesterday was a success in every way. The weather was fine, the roads, with the exception of the several miles between La Crosse and La Crescent, were exceptionally good and the party was a merry one. Only eleven cars, out of the twenty entered for the tour appeared at the start yesterday morning when the autoists assembled at the Stoddard hotel at 8 o'clock.

At 8:30 the machines set out. Zimmer and Austin Carrell acting as pilots in a big Stearns touring car. A liberal supply of confetti was carried by the pilots and none was lost enroute.

The pilot car was penalized 23 points for allowing the press car, driven by E. H. Derr, to pass ahead of it. The pilots got their lead again, however, as soon as a piece of road was reached which was broad enough to allow the two machines to pass.

There was no trouble or accident of any sort. The La Crosse party ran up the main street of Winona in regular order, the pilot car leading, closely followed by the press car. The Brush car driven by Homer Hart was third. F. S. Sisson followed, then came A. L. Grams, with Dr. Edw. Evans in close pursuit, Chas. Langenbach, C. F. Michel and the remaining cars followed. The time of the press car was one hour and 55 minutes. Much time was lost between La Crosse and La Crescent owing to the miserable condition of the turnpike which is in such poor shape that riding is uncomfortable at the low speed of five miles an hour.

The return trip was made in slower time as the party divided into two parts, half of the tourists returning by way of Galesville. They left Winona at 2 p. m.

Those who were registered at the Hotel Winona are H. Coleman, Henry Boehm, Ed Bartl, John Ablett, Frank Frye, Austin Carrell, Jake Zimmer, George Irvine, Frank Schwalbe, J. W. Bryant and family, C. H. Holway, E. H. Derr, F. H. Burgess, J. E. Tordt, Frank Dietz, R. C. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Langenbach, Miss J. Hellemann, E. Mueller, Miss L. Coren, Miss F. K. Michel, Otto Bosshard, C. F. Michel, Edw. Evans, John M. Hayes, A. Schubert, Andrew Boyd, Miss Belle Boyd, A. L. Grams and wife and two children.

MAN KILLS WIFE WITH TOMAHAWK

Woman Who Had Been a Belle, Daughter of Rich Man, Killed by Husband

IT WAS A DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Gives Startling Letter to the Police Then Shoots Self; Pleads for Baby's Care

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 26.—Waylaid his beautiful wife on a lonely country road and striking her down with an old Indian tomahawk, Robert E. Fanning of Westport (led to his home, wrote a startling letter to the chief of police at New Bedford in which he blessed his dead wife, drove to New Bedford, delivered the letter in the central police station, and then in the presence of three police officers blew out his brains.

The crime was spectacular and weird. Fanning literally hacked his wife to death with the tomahawk which he recovered from the grave of an old Indian chief near here.

Fanning's crime was caused by drink. Romance of Life. Five years ago Fanning, a man in moderate circumstances, met Tina Hall, the beautiful daughter of Geo. Hall, the wealthiest man in Westport, enjoying an income of $15,000 a year.

Mrs. Fanning was a reigning beauty. For two years they lived happily. Then Fanning began to drink and there were frequent quarrels. The birth of a baby girl failed to heal the breach.

Sunday the couple had a violent quarrel, and Mrs. Fanning, in alarm, fled to the home of Geo. Tripp, a miller, half a mile distant. She left Tripp's house at 8:30 o'clock last night to return to her home. Fanning waylaid her on the west side of Lions Brook and beat her to death with the tomahawk, hiding her body in the bushes, where it was found horribly mangled.

Fanning then returned to his home where he wrote the following weird letter, addressed to the chief of police at New Bedford:

"To Whom It May Concern:
"I am very, very sorry for what has occurred, and the public can judge for themselves if I was not too hasty and likewise my wife. God bless her. My baby is still living by this time, God bless her, and I hope she will never know what happened to her good father and mother. I loved my child better than myself. May God give me His blessing and to my child everlasting good will. I have had a good deal to put up with and the end is near."

Take Care of Baby.
"Trusting my baby will have the best of care, as she is one of the best babies that ever lived. It is hard to leave such a happy child, but, my God, I must."

"Oh God, I wish I could live to comfort my child; she has everything to live. I hope she will benefit by it, as there is enough for her to be wealthy. I would like to have my baby join us, but as cruel as I am I have no heart for such. My wife's body lies on the west side of Lions Brook about 50 feet to the south of the bushes. Please give it your immediate attention and remove the same as soon as possible. At my request please bury us together."

IWERSON WILL BE SPECIAL TEACHER

Will Give Lectures at Agricultural College if Board Permits; Plans Grounds for Directors

Supt. Iwerson of the city park board, the commission consenting, may become instructor in nursery and landscape subjects in the Onalaska county agricultural college.

Supt. Iwerson was called to the college Saturday by the directors, and asked for advice regarding laying out of the grounds. Mr. John Utermoehl, secretary of the board of trade, accompanied him. Mr. Iwerson suggested plans, which were approved at once by the directors. He also volunteered the idea that all planting be done by the students themselves, under his supervision, so as to give them practical experience, an idea that was received with enthusiasm.

Supt. Iwerson was then asked if he would become a special instructor in his line, to deliver lectures upon the nursery and kindred subjects. He replied that he would, provided the park board had no objection. The matter has not as yet come before the commission.

TARIFF SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED

WASHINGTON, July 26.—"The president is standing pat for free hides," Senator Bristow, of Kansas. "There is no change in the tariff situation. The president is just where he was yesterday."—Fred W. Carpenter, secretary to the president. These two briefs summed up the tariff situation at the White House after the president had had a number of conference with members from both houses of congress.

FAMOUS ARTIST IS HERE ON FOUNTAIN

Leonard Currelle of Chicago Will Design Figures for the J. O. Storey Water Fountain

Leonard Currelle the distinguished Edison Park, Chicago, artist, arrived today to consult with Supt. Iwerson of the park board as to the design for the Storey fountain. The bronze statue work was decided upon, and Mr. Currelle returned to Chicago to prepare the matter for presentation to the park commission. J. Ole Storey as a water boy will form the centerpiece of the fountain. He will be dressed in straw hat and overalls, carrying a pail from which the streams of the fountain play. The figure will be one and a half life.

Mr. Currelle endorsed without change the plans for the park drawn by Supt. Iwerson. For presentation to the park board he will have a small plaster cast of the fountain made and from this he will take photographs showing various views.

In the side of the fountain there will be profiles of Mr. Storey and his mother, to whose memory he makes the donation. The lion's head will be of bronze and the other figures will be carved statuary. The models and the photographs will be returned to the commission in a week.

THAW AND JEROME CHAT AND LAUGH

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 26.—The hearing of the case to test the sanity of Harry K. Thaw by which the slayer of Stanford White hopes to effect his release from Mattawan was resumed before Justice Mills today. District Attorney Jerome was on hand, bringing with him voluminous bundles of documents by which he hopes to defeat Thaw's move for freedom. An odd circumstance was that during the examination of Dr. Earnest Schmidt, Thaw and Jerome sat side by side at the counsel table talking and smiling together and laughing at some of Schmidt's testimony. Thaw continued to make notes and to hand Morschauer page after page of suggested questions.

Jerome Hits Hard.

"Thaw is sane now," Dr. Schmidt said in answer to a question. Schmidt said he positively knew Thaw is not suffering from paranoia at the present time and from his examination of the prisoner he did not believe he had ever suffered from that form of insanity.

He believed traces would remain if he had.

Weakens the Case.

After describing Evelyn Thaw's experience at the hands of White, as Thaw narrated to him, Schmidt was turned over to Jerome for cross-examination. Jerome made Schmidt review the entire clinical history of the case and revealed the fact that Schmidt's diagnosis was founded almost entirely on Thaw's physical condition and upon what Thaw had told him. The result of the examination was greatly to weaken Schmidt's testimony. Jerome brought out many peculiar actions in the past on the part of Thaw, both before and after the murder of White, which Schmidt had not considered.

With Dr. Schmidt on the stand, recess was taken until 2:30.

GROCERS' PICNIC IS GREATEST EVER

Plans for Fine Excursion Thursday on Steamer W. W. Are Now Ready for Announcement

ALL GROCERY STORES CLOSE

Trade Will Make Holiday and Patrons of Grocers and Their Families Cordially Invited

The annual picnic of the La Crosse Retail Grocers' association, which occurs Thursday, promises to be a triumph for that organization. The W. W. and barge, which will take the picnicers to Trempealeau, is prepared to accommodate a record crowd, and the outlook is for an attendance even greater than that of last year. Every grocer invites all of his customers and their friends to attend the picnic, and under the arrangement this year each grocer will look out for the comfort and enjoyment of his own customers at the picnic. Men who cannot so arrange their affairs as to attend the picnic, are urged to send their wives and children, and especial efforts will be made by the association to take care of women and children unattended by the male members of the family. Secretary Harry Taggart, who has returned from a trip to Trempealeau, announces that the grounds are in perfect condition and that there will be chairs and tables for everybody.

All grocery stores in La Crosse will be closed Thursday and business in the grocery line will be suspended.

The official program is a very interesting one, of which one of the features will be a ball game. Other athletic sports will be indulged in and prizes will be awarded the winners, and every effort will be made to administer to the comfort and enjoyment of the guests.

The W. W. leaves the Main street levee at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. Round trip tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children under 12 years of age.

Rules governing these contests:
1st.—Any person winning two prizes will be barred from entering any more contests.

2nd.—Anyone receiving an order for their prize must call for same at Hawley Commission company, 118 North Front street, La Crosse, Wis., by August 7th, 1909. All articles on hand after that date will be turned over to the Grocers' Retail association.

The Outcasts lost the last of the series to the Superior cellar champs yesterday before a large crowd at the League park by the score of 3 to 1. La Crosse scored in the fifth on two bums heaves to first by Shortstop Bancroft, and this one score would have won the game but an error by "Bunny" Wilhelm and the rank decision of Umpire Nelson in calling Holstrom safe at first in the ninth inning, when it was a plain case of being out. It isn't often that the La Crosse team kicks when at home, at least, but they all protested strenuously when Holstrom was called safe. The next man up was an easy put out. Post hit safely, but Bancroft, who was next up, grounded an easy one to Schardt who would have thrown him out at first if he had not found it necessary to catch Holstrom as he was sliding home. This would have retired the side. But the fact must not be lost sight of that the game really belonged to Superior. Big Phil Stremmel pitched ball of the A 1 class, the Outcasts being able to find him for but four scattered hits. The big fellow deserved a shut out and would have gotten one but for the two errors by Bancroft in the fifth inning. In this inning when the locals got their one run, not a hit was marked up for them. Schardt pitched a good game and had the cellar champs shut out until the eighth round, when an error by Wilhelm let them score. "Bunny" ran out to short center in an attempt to get Fleming's fly and Safford came in from center. It looked as if both were to run into each other but Safford stopped and "Bunny" made an ineffectual attempt to catch the pill, just touching it with his mitt. This would have made the third out in this round. Baker who was the next man up hit to right field, scoring Post who had gotten to base by being hit by Schardt. In the first round it looked as if the Drillers were to score, when Koeping hit to Safford in center field with Vogt on second base. "Germany" was tearing for the pan and would have scored, but Safford's perfect throw from deep center to Wais exterminated Vogt as he slid to the pan. It was one of the prettiest throws seen on the local diamond this year and the fans showed that they appreciated it. Safford repeated his performance in the third inning, catching Fleming at the plate with another beautiful throw from center. The locals' one score came in the fifth round, which Wais opened by flying out to Vogt. Schardt was out, Baker to McCulloch. Malloy grounded one to McCulloch who heaved the ball wide to McCulloch at first, letting Malloy reach the second sack. Wilhelm grounded one to Bancroft, who, seemingly confused by Baker's running in front of him, shot another poor one to the first sacker, which scored Malloy and gave "Bunny" a life on the initial bag. Eddie Kline, who is back in the game again, grounded an easy one to Bancroft and this time the shortstop shot it true to first, retiring the locals. In the remaining innings of the game the Outcasts got but one man as far as third sack. In the sixth, eighth and ninth innings the local batters went out in one, two, three order, none of them seeing first. Post, who was catching yesterday, started the eighth inning for the Drillers by being hit by Schardt. He was sacrificed to second by Bancroft. Stremmel died, Wilhelm to Letcher, making two out. Fleming popped out a fly which Safford could have gotten and would have but for an impending collision with Wilhelm, who ran out to get it. Needless to say, neither of them caught it, the ball glancing off "Bunny's" mitt as it came down. Had Wilhelm caught the ball, the Superior batters would have been retired, but as it was, Baker, who came up with his big stick, batted out a pretty drive to right field which gave the Drillers their first run. Vogt was hit on the finger and had to show it to Nelson before that umpire would let him have his base. Koeping retired the Drillers by flying out to Malloy, who made a pretty long, running catch of his high foul by the north fence. In the next inning Holstrom hit to Schardt, who threw to Wilhelm who was covering second, and who heaved the pill to Letcher in an attempt to double, but Nelson called both men safe. Holstrom was clearly out and cries of "robber" and "thief" were heard from the fans. Safford registered a protest with the umpire, but to no effect. McCulloch was out, Schardt to Letcher, and Post hit safely to center, putting Holstrom on third. Bancroft grounded an easy one to Schardt, who heaved the pill to Wais, catching Holstrom at the plate. Then came big Stremmel, who pounded out a pretty hit to left field scoring Post and Bancroft and winning his own game. He died trying to stretch the hit into a two bagger. The score:

second. Klein chased half way to the sack and threw to Wilhelm, a little wide, and the ball went to center and "Dutch" to third. "Bunny" should have tried to get the ball as it was easily within his reach, but he seemed confused. Koeping scored Vogt with a drive to center and was sacrificed to second by Holstrom. Wolford tried to catch him asleep at second, but heaved the ball wide to Wilhelm, and Safford also failed to stop it, Koeping going the circuit.

The locals had but two possible chances of scoring. In the eighth Wolford surprised himself by hitting to left. Malloy fielded out to first base, and Wilhelm got a base on balls. R. Klein grounded one to Bancroft who threw "Bunny" out at second, letting Wolford to third. A hit would have meant a run, but Safford was out on a good stop by Baertschi who threw to first. In the ninth Letcher led off with a pretty triple to center field, but the next three up were out on sensational fielding by Baertschi, Bancroft and McCulloch. The score:

The Boston Americans won yesterday's game in the first inning, when two errors of commission and two of omission were mixed with a couple of hits, counting four runs in all that were made. Killian pitched shutout ball, while no Detroit batter outside of Crawford could do anything with Collins. Detroit threatened in the sixth, but a fine throw to the plate by Speaker started a double play that killed its only chance. Works pitched the last inning and struck out three men in succession. Boston did some sensational fielding.

St. Louis hit Walter Johnson hard yesterday and found little trouble in taking the last game of the series 6 to 0. Johnson started well but some poor support cost him two runs in the opening inning. Waddell was in good form.

Chicago made it four straight from Philadelphia by winning 3 to 0. This was the eighth straight victory for the Sox. Smith pitched an excellent game, while Morgan's wildness was costly.

The St. Louis Nationals defeated Cincinnati in a twelve inning game yesterday, scoring three runs in the deciding round. Up to the eighth inning only one hit had been made off Spade, the Cincinnati pitcher. He was compelled to retire in the ninth. Dubuc took his place, and being succeeded in the eleventh in favor of Castleton. Mowrey, the Cincinnati third baseman, twisted his ankle in the eighth and retired. Huggins taking his place.

KETCHEL AND PAPKE TO FIGHT AGAIN

CHICAGO, July 26.—"I'm willing to meet Stanley Ketchel again any time a purse is hung up but that talk about a match with Sam Langford is wrong. I will never meet a colored boxer under any circumstances," said Billy Papke, the middleweight boxer who appeared today at a local theatre.
"We will take Ketchel on again as soon as Coffroth gets ready for us," said Papke's manager, his brother Edward. "We are open for bouts and if Ketchel does not intend to meet Billy we intend to go east in a few weeks and meet any middleweight who desires a bout. Then we will sail for England. I know Billy can make a mark on the side of the water which will cause some of the middleweight claimants of the championship to give him a chance."

DONLIN TO MANAGE PHILADELPHIANS?

NEW YORK, July 26.—While the officials of the New York baseball club refuse either to affirm or deny the story, there is little doubt that Mike Donlin, New York's recalcitrant right fielder, has been traded to Philadelphia, and that as soon as he is reinstated by the National baseball commission he will become the manager of the Philadelphia team, vice William Murray, whose resignation has been demanded. It is said Philadelphia gives to New York Sherwood Magee and either Moren or Foxen, pitchers. It is believed McGraw will insist on Moren.

Since Mathewson's injury and the spiking of "Rube" Marquard Wilts and Raymond have been the only available pitchers New York had, and they could not keep up their work. As Donlin was holding out, McGraw figured he could get a good pitcher and a first class outfielder by making the exchange.

LA CROSSE CINCHES POSSESSION OF CUP

Madison Golfers So Badly Defeated They Have
No Chance to Win
the Cup

The La Crosse Country club golfers practically won permanent possession of the Brittingham-Hixon cup, Saturday, when they defeated the representatives of the Maple Leaf club of Madison by a score of 74, which added to last year's lead, places the local men so far ahead that the opponents have practically no chance to overtake them in one match remaining to be played. This will be played at the links of the Madison club probably August 26th. The local club now has a lead of 308, which practically cinches possession of the cup.

The weather Saturday was ideal for the match, twenty-three visiting golfers taking part. They were entertained at luncheon and a dinner in the evening.

Following are the individual scores:

STAND BY THE U. OF W.

The importance to the people of this state of the attack being made upon the university because of its stand in favor of conservation of state resources, particularly water power, cannot be over estimated. It is in line with efforts made by monopolistic interests everywhere to control the voice of educational institutions in favor of private interests. Not only is it sought to prevent honest expression of ideas antagonistic to the plans of monopolists, but to compel teachings dishonestly aimed to disseminate ideas inimical to the popular welfare and tending to build up the strength of the trusts.

When this movement began in Wisconsin during the recent session
of the legislature, it was not in the form of an open attack, restrictions
of university funds and an attempt to deprive the faculty of the power
to fix entrance qualifications figuring in the guerrilla warfare indulged in by the Stephenson forces. This latter assault is exposed in all its ramifications by a New York dispatch
printed freely in this state during June, in which the correspondent
stated that, "The University of Wisconsin is considered the model institution of learning in the United States, with regard to its demands
on students, by the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching, according to Secretary John G.
Bowman. In discussing why George Washington university was denied the privileges of the foundation and its system of retiring professors on pensions Mr. Bowman declared that Harvard, Columbia and New York universities had been warned of their laxity in admitting students
and added that the University of Illinois, the University of North Carolina and other state institutions
which had asked to be placed on the foundation's list had been rejected
because the foundation was not satisfied with the standard of these institutions. Mr. Bowman said that the University of Wisconsin and its standards of admission were considered the best in the country and that this institution faithfully preserved its standard."

The gist of the controversy is this:
Certain capitalists want to grab and
hold for themselves and their families all the valuable water power

in the state, and bills they caused
to be introduced for that purpose
were defeated owing to opposition
of progressive members who did not hesitate to quote President Van Hise
as authority for their stand.

The gravity of the situation, and the immense value of the grab together with the desperate fixity of purpose of those attempting it, is known, and is becoming the subject of objection in leading prints. "The trust that will control all other trusts," says John L. Mathews in the current number of Hampton's Magazine, "is marching forward, steadily, unresisted. King Pileon's cohorts are not alone in the field. Every great group of capitalists in the United States is interested in water power. The Standard Oil and the Amalgamated Copper people are grabbing powers in the northwest.
The Duke-Ryan Tobacco Trust group is interested in southern powers. The Moffat group, with Myron Herrick,
is busy in Colorado. Harriman,
through Pacific coast power companies and through alliance with Oakleigh Thorne and Marsden Perry,
makes his influence felt and contributes to the good understanding.
The harvest trust, the carbide
trust, the aluminum trust, the Widener group—all these and others
are getting their share of our water powers. What are you going to do about it? Of course, if you are one of the capitalists represented in any of the present water power corporations, you are going to promptly and enthusiastically condemn "muck-raking" magazines, and give instructions to your press agents, your newspapers and your lawyers to discredit these statements in every possible manner. But if you are one of the other 99,999 out of every 100,000 of the population—if you are just a plain business man, or professional man, or working man, or farmer—what are you going to do?
You have no press agents, no highly trained lawyers—and it is to be feared you have too few newspapers.
So what do you propose to do? You can sit idly by and can be sure that the grabbers are busy every minute.
Or you can demand intelligent, honest action from your member of the state legislature and your member of congress and your United States senator."

Not entirely unresisted is this trust marching. It has encountered the resistance of the University of Wisconsin, and just for that President Van Hise and his associates in the faculty are being assailed. The covert thrust has given way to open assault now, with Neal Brown, lobbyist and politician, as the paid and interested spokesman of the Wisconsin capitalists interested. We do not vouch for the idea that any of the university regents are in sympathy
with the attack, but their removal
in favor of men that are "right" with the monopolists may be expected to be undertaken.

Will the people of this state submit, or will they back their university and protect the richest nature
has bestowed upon them in the resources of earth and water? We shall see.

The Sutton trial brings into the limelight the practice of severe hazing which is carried on by the upper classmen at West Point as well
as at other colleges in the country.
This practice should be governed by the maxim, "Moderation in All Things." A little of it is all right and just the thing that some young
students need, but some of the severe cases that have been brought to the notice of the public, should result in a serious reformation of this practice.
If it can not be carried on in the right manner and with moderation,
let us drop it entirely from our college life and relegate it to the class of things which are spoken of as "ancient college traditions."

"Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." Crowned heads have very prickly pillows just now. The Shah of Persia and the Sultan of Turkey rest on tottering thrones. The czar is with King Edward and both move
only under a powerful armed guard
in England. Alfonso faces revolution and the Morocco sultan is kicking
like a mouse in a trap.

It is said that talk is cheap. Perhaps that is why baseball managers
use so much of it and professional pugilists prefer "gab" to blows. If newspapers charged them for advertising by the word they would not find it quite so cheap, and it would be better for the public.

What's the use of making fun at the fair sex as long as there are police in Chicago who hit objects at which they are not pointing. A press dispatch has it that a Chicago
policeman shot at a dog and hit a man.

Is that street car trouble settled?
Oh Pshaw!

Hippo Hunting.
To hunt the hippopotami
Must be the grandest fun,
For they can neither run nor fly,
And when they turn and waddle by
You pot 'em with your gun.

The hippo swims and dives a bit,
And wades from spot to spot;
And if you have a gun and grit
You'll softly steal right up to it
And sting it with a shot.

The hippo makes a clumsy pet,
He's such an ugly brute;
He messes 'round in places yet—
And all the hippos I have met
Were only good to shoot.

Willing to Pay.
The Rt. Rev. Bishop of Delaware
tells the following story:
"A young man came to me one day and said: 'Bishop, I want you to marry me on next Wednesday.'
"All right, young man; I'll marry you," I assured him.
"Well, I want the bell to ring,"
he continued.
"Very well, you can have the bell rung."
"Well, I want the organ to play."
"All right; you can have the organ played."
"And I want everything else
that anybody ever had at a church
wedding."
"Certainly; you shall have it."
"Well, the night came, the bell
rang, the organ played, the church
was crowded, and everything went off as the young man wanted it.
When the ceremony was over the young couple waited, instead of leaving the chapel. So I held out my hand, shook hands with the bride,
and then held out my hand to the bridegroom. He had his hand deep in his trousers pocket, and as I stood with my hand out he said, somewhat impatiently and in a tone that could be heard all over the church:
"Now, don't be in such a hurry
fired hurry, bishop; I'm getting the money out just as fast as I can."
"And everybody in the church
giggled."—Lippincott's.

Courtship in the North.

rus oil, and peered over the sealskin
curtain.
"Aurora," he called, sharply. "Is that young man down there yet?"
"Yes, pa," answered the Eskimo belle.
"Well, I want you to cut him out.
understand?"
"Er—you'll have to do it yourself, pa; he has been here so long
he is frozen to the snow settee."—

Domestic Economy
Mollie, the Irish domestic in the service of a Wilmington household,
was one afternoon doing certain odd bits of work about the place when her mistress found occasion to rebuke her for one piece of carelessness.
"You haven't wound the clock,
Mollie," said she. "I watched you closely, and you gave it only a wind or two. Why, didn't you complete the job?"
"Sure, mum, ye haven't forgot
that I'm leavin' tomorrow, have ye?"
asked Mollie. "I ain't goin' to be do-
in' anny of the new year's work!"

entered a horse in a certain race and made a bet on it.
When the horses got away the man
stood with the field glasses glued to his eyes, watching the progress of his favorite.
Some of the men who knew of the
bet crowded around and asked how
the horse was going.
"Well," was the reply, "I can't just make out whether he is the last
in the third race or the first in the fourth."

"Dead this, ma'am, I don't know,"

Let's be Fair
The wires have flashed the news
that a "peach basket" hat worn by a woman in a canoe, and rendered lopsided and overturned the craft, at this point the correspondent, evidently
male and prejudiced, stopped short.
If he wished to be fair he should have gone on to tell that the scenar-
iote of the boat grasped the hat,
climbed aboard of it, and until their rescue fared sumptuously on the fruit
and garden truck which constituted
part of its artistic decoration.—

STAIRCASE

CHAPTER I
I Take a Country House.
This is the story of how a middle-
aged splinter lost her mind, deserted
her domestic gods in the city, took a furnished house for the summer
out of town, and found herself involved in one of those mysterious crimes that keep our newspapers
and detective agencies happy and prosperous. For twenty years I had been perfectly comfortable; for twenty years I had had the window-
boxes filled in the spring, the carpets lifted, the awnings put up and the furniture covered with brown
linen; for as many summers I had said good-bye to my friends, and,
after watching their perspiring he-
gira, had settled down to a delicious
quiet in town, where the mail comes
three times a day, and the water supply
does not depend on a tank on the roof.

And then—the madness seized me.
When I look back over the months
I spent at Sunnyside, I wonder that I survived at all. As it is, I show
the wear and tear of my harrowing experiences. I have turned very gray—Liddy reminded me of it, only yesterday, by saying that a little bluing in the rinse-water would make my hair silvery. Instead of a yellowish white, I hate to be reminded of unpleasant things and I snapped her off.

"No," I said sharply. "I'm not going to use bluing at my time of life,
or starch, either."

Liddy's nerves are gone, she says,
since that awful summer, but she
has enough left, goodness knows!
And when she begins to go around
with a lump in her throat, all I have to do is to threaten to return to Sunnyside, and she is frightened into a semblance of cheerfulness, from which you may judge that the summer there was anything but a success.

The newspaper accounts have been so garbled and incomplete—one of them mentioned me but once, and then only as the tenant at the time
the thing happened—that I feel it
my due to tell what I know. Mr.
Jamieson, the detective, said himself
he could never have done without me,
although he gave me little
enough credit, in print.

I shall have to go back several years—thirteen, to be exact—to start my story. At that time my brother died, leaving me his two children. Halsey was eleven then, and Gertrude was seven. All the responsibilities of maternity were thrust
upon me suddenly to perfect the profession of motherhood requires precisely as many years as the child has lived, like the man who started to carry the calf and ended by walking along with the bull on his shoulders.
However, I did the best I could.
When Gertrude got past the half-ribbon age, and Halsey asked for a scarf-pin and put on long trousers—
and a wonderful help that was to the darning!—I sent them away to good schools. After that, my responsibility was chiefly postal, with three months every summer in which to replenish their wardrobes, look over their lists of acquaintances, and generally to take my foster-motherhood
out of its nine months' retirement in camphor.

I missed the summers with them
when, somewhat later, at boarding-
school and college, the children spent much of their vacations with friends.
Gradually I found that my nam-
signed to a check was even more welcome than when signed to a letter,
though I wrote them at stated intervals. But when Halsey had finished his electrical course and Gertrude her boarding-school, and both came home to stay, things were suddenly changed. The winter Gertrude came out was nothing but a succession of sitting up late at night to bring her home from things, taking her to the dressmakers between naps the next day, and discouraging intellible
youths with either more money than brains, or more brains than money.
Also, I acquired a great many new things: to say lingerie for under-garments, "frocks" and "gowns" instead of dresses, and that beardless sophomore are not college boys, but college men. Halsey required less personal supervision, and as they both got their mother's fortune that winter, my responsibility became purely moral. Halsey bought a car,
of course, and I learned how to tie
over my bonnet a gray batte veil,
and, after a time, never to stop to look at the dogs one has run down.
People are apt to be so unpleasant
about their dogs.

The additions to my education

made me a properly equipped malden aunt, and by spring I was quite irrepressible. So when Halsey suggested camping in the Adirondacks and Gertrude wanted Bar Harbor, we compromised on a good country
house with links near, within motor distance of town and telephone distance of the doctor. That was how we went to Sunnyside.

We went out to inspect the property, and it seemed to deserve its name. Its cheerful appearance gave no indication whatever of anything out of the ordinary. Only one thing seemed unusual to me, the housekeeper, who had been left in charge,
had moved from the house to the
gardener's lodge, a few days before.
The lodge was far enough away
from the house, it seemed to me that either fire or thieves could complete their work of destruction undisturbed. The property was an extensive
one; the house on the top of a hill,
which sloped away in great stretches of green lawn and clipped hedges,

The more the dough is kneaded, the lighter, whiter
and better the bread will be. The Marvel Bread

to the road; and across the valley,
perhaps a couple of miles away, was
the Greenwood Club House. Gertrude and Halsey were infatuated.
"Why, it's everything you want,"
Halsey said. "View, air, good water and good roads. As for the house,
it's big enough for a hospital, if it has a Queen Anne front and a Mary Anne back," which was ridiculous:
it was pure Elizabethan.

Of course we took the place; it was not my idea of comfort, being much too large and sufficiently isolated to make the servant question serious. But I gave myself credit for this: whatever has happened since, I never blamed Halsey and Gertrude for taking me there. And another thing: if the series of catastrophes
there did nothing else, it taught me
one thing—that somehow, somewhere, from perhaps a half-civilized
ancestor who wore a sheepskin garment and trailed his food or his prey, I have in me the instinct of the chase. Were I a man I should be as traillessly as no doubt my sheepskin ancestor did his wild boar. But being an unmarried woman, with the handicap of my sex,
my first acquaintance with crime
will probably be my last. Indeed, it came near enough to being my last
acquaintance with anything.

The property was owned by Paul Armstrong, the president of the Traders Bank, who at the time we took the house was in the west with his wife and daughter, and a Doctor
Walker, the Armstrong family physician. Halsey knew Louise Armstrong, had been rather attentive
to her the winter before, but as Halsey was always attentive to somebody, I had not thought of it seriously, although she was a charming girl. I knew of Mr. Armstrong only through his connection with the bank, where the children's money
was largely invested, and through an ugly story about the son, Arnold Armstrong, who was reported to have forged his father's name, for a considerable amount, to some bank paper. However, the story had had no interest for me.

I cleared Halsey and Gertrude away to a house party, and moved out to Sunnyside the first of May.

FALL TERM BEGINS
SEPTEMBER 7, 1909

The roads were bad, but the trees
were in leaf, and there were still tulips in the borders around the house. The arbutus was fragrant
in the woods under the dead leaves,
and on the way from the station, a short mile, while the car stuck in the mud, I found a bank showered with tiny forget-me-nots. The birds
—don't ask me what kind; they all look alike to me, unless they have a hail mark of some bright color—
the birds were chirping in the hedges, and everything breathed of peace. Liddy, who was born and bred on a brick pavement, got a little bit down-spirited when the crickets began to chirp, or scrape their legs together, or whatever it is they do, at twilight.

The first night passed quietly enough. I have always been grateful for that one night's peace; it shows
what the country might be, under favorable circumstances. Never after that night did I put my head on my pillow with any assurance how long it would be there; or on my shoulders, for that matter.

PROGRAM OUT FOR BIG SPARTA FAIR

SPARTA, Wis., July 26.—(Special.)—With the big Sparta fair but five weeks off, a great deal of interest is centered in the event in Monroe county, and the premium lists which have been issued from the secretary's office show that the public will be satisfied as to sports,
amusements and premiums offered
for the fair.

The great Velde trio has been secured as the headliner in the vaudeville circus which will be a feature of the fair, and other acts of equal merit will be secured.

Among the special features of the fair will be a series of games of baseball for the county championship.

In the speed department some good races are carded, including 2:30
and 2:19 trots, 2:30 and 2:17 pace,
3 year old trot and pace, one-half mile,
five-eighths mile and one mile running races. The purses for the speed events total $1,975 and entries are now being received.

Thursday will be athletes' day,
and the program of sports for the day includes 50 yard, 100 yard, and 220 yard dashes, pole vault, running high jump, running broad jump and long distance baseball throw. In each of these events the first prize is $3
and the second $1. The feature of the athletic day will be a relay race
for a purse of $10. Four candidates are to enter and run 220 yards each.
The educational department, in charge of County Superintendent of Schools, M. M. Haney, is worthy of special note and prizes in this department will be offered for best maps in drawn and clay form, specimens of penmanship, letter writing,
original stories, etc.
The corn and barley contest will be participated in by a large number of farmers of this county and is in four classes: Bar corn, golden glow
variety; stalk corn, same variety;
kernel barley, Orderbusher variety,
and sheaf barley, same variety.
The other department superintendents are as follows: Horses, Aug.
Schlaver; cattle, M. Hoveland; poultry, birds, etc., J. Herbert; sheep and swine, Thos. Hobson and H. Hughes;
mechanical, J. L. Jones; agriculture,
Ed. Babcock; vegetables and fruits,
F. W. Thrall; dairy and kitchen,
Mrs. Aug. Schlaver; domestic arts and children, Mrs. Jas. Snedden and Miss Minnie Pingel; educational, M.
M. Haney.

ONALASKA, Wis.
The Misses Eva and Mabel Brown
left for their home at Hoquiam, Wash., Thursday morning. Miss Mabel has been spending the summer
visiting relatives, while Miss Eva

has been a teacher here for the past six years.

M. M. Buttles purchased an automobile Thursday.

The Misses Alzada and Margaret
Vils returned to their home at Grand Meadow, Minn., Wednesday evening
after spending six weeks visiting relatives here.

E. T. Johnson made a trip to Galesville today.

Quite a number of Onalaska young ladies attended the summer school at West Salem this week. They are via Chisholm and Gladys Cox.

Miss Ida Nelson is supplying the place of the regular bookkeeper at Langdon & Boyd's City Market for a few weeks.

Mrs. F. Fraser of Cleveland, O., who has spent the summer here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
Dana will leave Monday for a sightseeing trip through the west, accompanied by her husband, F. E. Frazer, U. S. postal inspector, who will arrive here Saturday evening. They will visit the exposition at Seattle,
take in Portland, Ore., San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Denver and many other places of interest. They expect to reach home about the 12th of August.

The Pickle and Canning company expect to have a ten days' run in the late peas. The crops are fair.

Miss Grace E. Harris is spending a few weeks with the Rev. C. L.
Hocking and family at Patch Grove,
Wis.

Mrs. Pete Peterson returned from Beaver Creek Wednesday evening,
where she was called by the illness
of her father, Mr. O. Anderson.

SPECIAL FURNITURE
FOR LIBRARY ROOM

Architect Niedecker of Milwaukee, Miss Wing, the librarian, Prof. Fassett A. Cotton, principal of the school, and Senator Thomas Morris Saturday inspected as much of the new state normal school furniture as has arrived, and the architect was instructed to prepare new designs for the library furniture.

Prof. Cotton is now in Illinois, where he delivered a lecture last night.

Mr. Morris says that in view of the fact that the new normal school will accommodate 1,000 grade pupils from the kindergarten up to the high courses, the new institution will relieve a great amount of the present congestion in the La Crosse public schools.

An effort may be made to form a syndicate to purchase all of the surrounding real estate within a block of the building and reserving it for residence property. In case this deal is consummated no lots will be sold by the syndicate unless the purchaser agrees to erect a residence thereon of the prescribed style and cost.

ATKINSON SELLS
PEARL FOR $1,410

What is believed to be the richest pearl ever found in the Mississippi river was sold by Fred Atkinson, the finder, to Theodore Kerndt of Lansing for $1,410, who in turn disposed of it for a sum said to exceed $3,000. The pearl was a beautiful pink in color and weighed 50 grains.

The Atkinson family had been in destitute circumstances for some time and the finder says that he is satisfied with the amount that he received for it.

DROWNS FISHING

Employee of J. J. Hogan Is Drowned in Spring Slough South of the City Late Saturday

At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, John Schmidt, assistant engineer in the J. J. Hogan spice mills, was drowned in Spring Slough, four miles south of the city, where he had gone with W. Thiele and Fred Pohley, two other employees, on a fishing trip.

After fishing some time at one point, Schmidt said he would fish farther down stream, and left his companions. They later heard a scream and running in his direction, saw his fish pole floating upon the water. His shoes and stockings were on the bank, and it is thought that he stepped off of a ledge of the bar, and swallowing a large quantity of water was unable to save himself, despite the fact that he could swim. Campers in the vicinity came to the assistance of his friends and two hours later his body was recovered. It was too late for resuscitation, however. The remains were brought to Miller's undertaking establishment, where Coroner Kleeber decided an inquest was unnecessary.

He leaves a wife and five children all under seven years of age, at Eleventh and Tyler streets. He was 30 years old and had been employed by Hogan for fifteen years, where he was known as a faithful and efficient workman.

SPAIN IS INCENSED WAR UNPOPULAR

The Moors Using Terrible Explosives; Spanish Gov. Is Near the Mutiny of Own Soldiers

MADRID, July 26.—Five thousand Spanish soldiers left Madrid this morning to put down the rebellion among the tribesmen in Morocco and the minister of war issued a statement that at least 24,000 troops will be transported this week. This statement is taken with a "grain of salt" as the government is seeking to allay the anger of the people.

General Marina, who is making a gallant defense against the tribesmen besieging Melilla wired today that he expected a furious attack at any moment. There are but 8,000 Spaniards in Melilla and against these 20,000 fanatical tribesmen have arisen en masse.

The news that the Moorish hordes are using explosive bullets which mutilate terribly has caused a panic among the Spanish troops mobilized.

TRAIN IN RIVER; 10 KILLED; MANY HURT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 26.—Of nearly 50 persons more or less injured in the Wabash wreck early Sunday morning near Orrick Mo., ten are dead.

The train slid into the Missouri river following the softening of the tracks after the floods. One of the heroes of the wreck was the negro porter of the Pullman. He went into the submerged day coach and rescued eighteen persons, risking his life a number of times.

THOUSANDS FLOCK TO SEE AIRSHIP

American Merchant in London Gives $1,000 for Exhibit of Monoplane; Stimulates Enterprise

LONDON, July 26.—Londoners flocked by thousands today to the American department store of Henry G. Selfridge, to view the Blériot monoplane, in which the daring French aviator crossed the English channel Sunday morning.

Mr. Selfridge gave $1,000 to a London hospital in return for being permitted to exhibit the monoplane and his enterprise is being richly rewarded. It seemed that everybody in the metropolis wanted to see the monoplane and a special detachment of police had to guard it from the eager throng. Arrangements are being made today to give Blériot a tremendous welcome when he comes to London, which will probably be within the next few days.

ORANGEMEN LIONIZE MISS ELLA GINGLES

CHICAGO, July 26.—Ella Gingles will meet a royal reception when she leaves here August 3 for her home in Lame, county Antrim, accompanied by Miss Grace Van Duzen Cooke and Mrs. Theodore Bagshaw, two local club women. Local Orangemen will contribute money to pay her expenses home and at New York she will be escorted by Orangemen from the Twentieth Century Limited to the steamship.

At Liverpool, Orangemen will receive her and Belfast Orangemen will see that she reaches her mother's home safely. Today the girl is preparing her wardrobe, the cost of which was paid by the Orangemen, and sufficient money will be provided during the trip to make it enjoyable.

GLIDDEN AUTO MEN HONORED AT DENVER

DENVER, July 26.—The Glidden tourists, who are being entertained here for a few days, visited Mount Clearan today after a day of pleasure yesterday with the automobile enthusiasts of Denver as hosts.

Luncheons, a banquet, sight seeing trips and other amusements have been held for the tourists and no expense has been spared to make the visit enjoyable.

AERIAL HEROES ARE HONORED

PARIS, July 26.—France is not so widely excited over the aerial triumph of one of her sons, Louis Blériot, in sailing over the English channel in an airship as to forget the achievements of other "conquerors of the air" and today Wilbur and Orville Wright and Henri Farman were made chevaliers in the Legion of Honor.

The decorations of the Wright Brothers with this signal honor in recognition of their record-breaking flights at Lemans and Pau, were given them today.

MORRIS FAY GETS HIS CLOTHING BACK

As the result of the story in The Tribune Saturday of the fact a sack of old clothing and shoes were stolen at Fifth and Ferry streets from Morris Fay, a peddler, two little boys who had found it returned the goods to the police station. They said they saw the bag sitting on the corner and as no one appeared to claim it they carried it home.

MAY HAVE FOUND JUDGE CLARKSON

Body in Chicago Drainage Canal Believed to Be Missing Judge Minus His Gray Beard

CHICAGO, July 26.—J. H. O'Brien, an undertaker at Lamont, Ill., today reported to the local police that he had found a body in the drainage canal at Willow Springs, Ill., which he believes is that of Judge Clarkson, the Kenosha, Wis., lawyer who disappeared more than a week ago. O'Brien says the body answers the description of Clarkson in detail, the only thing different about the body being the fact that the dead man had no beard, while Judge Clarkson had whiskers when last seen. The police have communicated with the Kenosha authorities, who think Clarkson may have shaved off his beard.

Teeth Seen to Identify. KENOSHA, Wis., July 26.—Mrs. Clarkson was shown the description of the body found in the Illinois drainage canal, but said she was unable to state whether the body was that of her husband.

What impressed her most about the description was the fact that two of the upper teeth of the body found at Willow Springs are chipped at the corners. Mrs. Clarkson said her husband's teeth were chipped in that way.

She also said her husband wore a black serge suit instead of a blue serge when last seen, but it is thought here Undertaker O'Brien might have mistaken the black for dark blue.

LA CROSSE CO. POOR WON'T SUFFER

"The impression given out by some of the members of the poor commissioner's office, to the effect that La Crosse county is neglecting its poor, and that paupers in the various towns will be allowed to starve, because the county board failed to pay over into the hands of the commissioners the sum of $2,000 is wrong," declared Supervisor Oscar Hulberg today.

Mr. Hulberg is a member of the committee on ways and means and together with the other members of the committee has looked into the financial crisis which seems to be hanging over the heads of La Crosse county charges. "They will be kept as sleek and well fed as ever," declared the supervisor, "and need have no cause for worry. We have just fixed things up now, so that when the poor commissioners have used up the $2,000 or more which they have on hand, they can borrow as much more money as they need from the county treasurer, up to a limit of $2,000. So you see, there will still be 'feeds' at the poor farm, even though the poor commissioners get 'broke'."

STRIKE PENDING AT CHICAGO STOCKYARDS

CHICAGO, July 26.—Unless the big packers agree to the terms demanded by the striking steamfitters in the stockyards at a conference to be held this afternoon, several hundred butchers and other members of organized labor unions employed by the packers will go out in sympathy.

STRIKE ENDS TODAY AT STEEL CAR WORKS

BUTLER, Pa., July 26.—The strike at the Standard Steel Car company plant ended this morning. When the whistle blew at 7 o'clock over 2,000 men were ready to work. The strikers returned without any agreement for the adjusting of differences. Seven of the leaders were discharged.

VICE-GRAFT CASES STIRRING CHICAGO

Chief Inspector McCann Indicted and Prosecution Divulge Reform Element; Revelations Expected

CHICAGO, July 26.—States Attorney Wayman does not propose to lose time in the prosecution of persons indicted by the Cook county grand jury in its present investigation into the alleged acceptance of money for "protecting vice."

He announced this afternoon that the trial of Inspector Edward McCann against whom 10 indictments were returned Saturday on charge of malfeasance in office and accepting money from resort keepers would begin in the criminal court tomorrow morning. The state promises sensational revelations as soon as the trial is under way.

The quick trial was arranged at a meeting between McCann's attorney and Wayman this afternoon. McCann demanded instant action on his case and the states attorney agreed.

In the meantime, the grand jury has not let up in the least in its investigation. Thirteen indictments were returned at noon today—all against resort keepers who are alleged to have paid for police protection from arrest.

At noon it was reported that thirteen new indictments in connection with alleged vice protection had been voted by the grand jury and would be returned before night. All of them are against resort keepers, according to the report, and will be used by the state's attorney as a "club" in an effort to get witnesses to turn state's evidence.

Confirmation of the reports that the investigation would spread to the South side levee district came today when John Wheeler, inspector of the first police division on the South side, appeared before the grand jury as a witness.

With him were Lieut. Benj. Enright and Detective Duffy, both South side officers.

The summoning of these witnesses led to the report that the grand jury probe had turned to the alleged collection of "protection" money from Chinese gamblers in the Chinatown. In spite of the charges against the inspector—malfeasance in office and acceptance of money for protecting vice—McCann's chief supporters are the leading members of the city's reform element. Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House; Dean Summer, of the Episcopal cathedral; Prof. Graham Taylor, and a number of Catholic priests have expressed their confidence in the officer and their readiness to do anything in their power to defend him.

er. Trusting you will do your duty, I remain,

"Yours very truly,

(Signed) "Robert M. Fanning."

"P. S.—Don't fail to look for my wife's body and remove same as soon as possible. Oh, my God, what have I done!"

"For baby, be sure and put my baby in good hands. My folks will take her as I wish, which is my wish. Hoping my baby will be looked after as I know my folks will attend to it, goodbye, pa and ma, brothers and sisters, and to all my friends. God bless you all and not forgetting my own flesh and blood, my baby. Mrs. Murray is a kind woman and I must not forget her. God bless her. I am sorry for what I have done. Please give my ring and belongings to my brother Will."

Sensational Suicide.

Fanning then entered his automobile and drove to Parker's garage in this city, where he left his car and walked to the police station. He was greatly excited when he walked to Police Lieutenant Comstock's desk, shortly after 1:30 o'clock this morning. He steadied himself sufficiently to ask Comstock to read the letter. The officer perused a part of the contents and then turned to Fanning:

"What do you want me to do about this?"

Fanning laconically answered: "Just this," and turned a revolver, the muzzle of which he placed in his mouth. Lieutenants Comstock and Wing and a private policeman rushed toward him, but before they could reach him he had pulled the trigger and sent a bullet into his brain, dying instantly.

BARELY ESCAPED FATAL TORNADO

Ray Shackley of Provident City, Texas, formerly of La Crosse, just missed being caught in the terrible Texas tornado which wrecked a dozen towns, laid waste miles of the southern Texas rice country, took fourteen lives and injured scores of people, and did millions of dollars worth of damage.

Mr. Shackley who is now in La Crosse visiting friends, tells an interesting tale of the destruction wrought by the elements. He was at Galveston, Texas, the day before the hurricane, and left there just in time to escape the fury of the elements. Mr. Shackley and his cousin, Burt Shackley, also a former La Crosse man, are running a fruit farm at Provident City, which lies very close to El Campo, where several people were killed. No damage has been reported from the Shackley farm.

MRS. PARKER WILL BE THE SENSATION

Testimony of Sister of Lieut. Sutton Will Be Dramatic Feature of Extraordinary Military Case

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 26.—This week promises to bring out the real sensations in the inquiry into the death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton of the marine corps when Mrs. Parker testifies regarding her investigation of the death of her brother.

Osterman Says No. True to his promise to recall every witness to the stand to ask them if they had given Sergeant Dehart the pistol he later threw away on the night of the campus fight, Attorney Davis early today asked Lieut. Osterman if he had been that person.

"I did not give Dehart a pistol on the night Sutton was shot," replied Osterman.

Davis asked Osterman whether he did not have blood stains on his shirt that night.

Talked About Affair. He replied that he did, but he did not know exactly how they were caused. He did not remember about Sutton's nose-bleed. Perhaps he it might have come from Lieut. Adams' wounded finger. As though laying a foundation to attack Mrs. Parker's stories of the admission received from her brother's assailant on the night of the tragedy, the judge advocate said:

"Have you ever related the story of a fight with Sutton to Mrs. Parker?"

"Not in detail."

"Did you ever tell anyone who might have told Mrs. Parker?"

"I talked about it around the camp afterwards."

HARRY THAW TO THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

CLEVELAND, O., July 26.—That Harry Thaw should have been strapped to the electric chair for the murder of Stanford White, was the astonishing statement of Rev. W. W. Bustard at the Euclid Avenue Baptist church last night.

The church which is known generally as Rockefeller's church, was packed when the minister, who came to Cleveland several weeks ago from Boston, began his sermon on "Lessons from the Life of Harry K. Thaw."

"I do not seek to justify the character of Stanford White," said the pastor, "but I can't justify the murder by Harry Thaw. But for his money he would have been dead and buried and forgotten long ago."

S.S.S. REMOVES S.S.S. BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery nature irritates and inflames the skin, and dries up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affection. S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its nutritious, red corpuscles, and enriches it in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S., the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write.

NEW CHAPTER IN PITTSBURG STRIKE

Steel Car Works Surrounded by Two Thousand Strikers; State Constabularyalled Out of Beds

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 26.—Fearing an attempt to bring strike breakers into the plant, 2,000 striking workmen of the Pressed Steel Car company at McKees Rocks, surrounded the plant today and remained on guard.

Every street car entering the town was boarded and each passenger required to give an account of himself, but no strike breakers were found. This system of espionage was continued for five hours. Fearing violence, members of the state constabulary were hustled from their beds to do patrol duty. Although the pickets of the strikers completely surrounded the mill, the troopers made no effort to disperse them.

Deputy sheriffs on guard at the Water plant on the Ohio river bank encountered an attacking party at about 3 o'clock this morning. It was a skiff full of strikers who landed near the water works. Their object is not known. As soon as they were discovered they hurled rocks and other missiles at the deputies and this was answered by a volley of shots. One man was reported wounded, but no trace of him was found.

The proprietor of a small ferry was compelled today to stop his ferry after he had been beaten. The strikers feared the vessel might be used to bring over strike breakers. There was no additional body of men reported at the plant for work today and it is said still idle.

The commissary department had few people to feed this morning.

In Woodmen hall, and several new members were taken in. Dissatisfaction was expressed over the failure to reach a settlement and a committee was appointed to order a strike in case Mr. Ferris did not agree to the appointment of a local man as the third member of the arbitration board. The committee consists of Charles Masterson, Thomas Daley and Harvey Johnson. Some of the men wanted to declare an immediate strike and tie up the system at once, but Mr. Fay, international carmen's organizer, advised against this and urged the men to give the company further opportunity to show their desire to reach an amicable settlement. The feeling exists among the men, says Mr. Fay, that the company is endeavoring to hamper the arbitration work and needlessly delay the work of the settlement.

The Men Rejected.

The concession of the carmen following the refusal of the company's representative to consider any La Crosse men whose names were submitted to the company by the carmen are the following: Circuit Judge E. C. Higbee, Dr. W. A. Edwards, A. E. Bleekman, John Costley, County Judge John Brindley, C. C. Looney, Justice Leonard Klecker, Henry N. Boehm, John A. Elliott, District Attorney Jas. Thompson, Thomas Stavrum, Joseph Miller, John E. McConnell, Under-sheriff George D. Wright, Sol. Burdick, John B. Turnbull, Lars Innes, George W. Young, County Clerk Charles H. Rawlinson, E. C. Raymond, John C. Toeller, Rev. Randall, Dr. T. H. Miller, Justice C. L. Baldwin, Andrew Thompson, Ed Lyons, Aaron M. Brayton, Dr. G. W. Lucke, Otto Bosshard, Dr. J. L. Callahan, William Doerflinger, John Dengler, Frank W. Allen, Rev. Ambrose Murphy, Rev. W. D. Cunningham.

KNOCKS THE GRAIN DOWN LOW TODAY

CHICAGO, July 26.—Another cyclone struck the wheat pit today, sending prices of all futures still further down. At noon July wheat has lost nearly three cents on the day and was at $1.05 3-4, which is 23 1-4 below the high figure of the crop. September at the same time touched $1.04 and December was down to $1.02 3-8. All of these tremendous declines have come in less than two weeks.

SNOW STORM CAUSE OF LOST AIR RACE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 26.—Berry's balloon, the University City, which left here last night, landed at Savannah, Ill. Reports from there state that the balloon had a good chance to beat the Lahm cup record when a snow storm was encountered compelling the aeronauts to descend.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE

On or about the twelfth day of June, 1906 Hagbarth Dittleson and Dina Dittleson, his wife, of La Crosse, Wisconsin, made and delivered to Helen M. Nichols their promissory note in writing bearing date on said day whereby they promised to pay to the order of said Helen M. Nichols the sum of six hundred dollars ($600.00) three years after said date with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. To secure the payment thereof, the said makers of said promissory note above named executed and delivered to the said Helen M. Nichols their mortgage of even date with said note whereby they mortgaged to said Helen M. Nichols the following described real estate situated in the county of La Crosse and state of Wisconsin, to-wit: Lot number twelve (12), in Block number three (3) of first addition to Spier's addition to the city of La Crosse. Said mortgage was recorded in the office of the register of deeds for La Crosse County, Wisconsin on the sixteenth day of July, 1906 in volume 66 of mortgages at page 350. By said mortgage said mortgagors authorized and empowered the said Helen M. Nichols in case of default in the payment of said sum of six hundred dollars ($600) or of the interest thereon or the taxes upon said real estate to sell said real estate at public auction to pay the amount due on said note and mortgage and any unpaid taxes thereon and attorney's fees of $25.00 and on such sale to make, execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed of the premises sold.

The said mortgagors have made default in the conditions of said note and mortgage by neglecting and omitting to pay the said sum of six hundred dollars ($600) principal, or any interest thereon except the sum of forty-six dollars ($46.00) interest, and by neglecting and omitting to pay the taxes levied upon said real estate for the years 1907 and 1908.

No action has been commenced to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof. The said Helen M. Nichols is still the owner and holder of said note and mortgage. The amount claimed to be due on said note and mortgage at the date of this notice is principal and interest, six hundred and sixty-five dollars ($665.00); attorney's fees, twenty-five dollars ($25.00); taxes, paid by mortgagee, forty-two and 27-100 dollars ($42.27); in all, seven hundred thirty-two and 27-100 dollars ($732.27).

Wherefore, Helen M. Nichols mortgagee above named, hereby gives notice that said mortgage will be foreclosed by the sale of the mortgaged premises above described or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the mortgage debt, interest, taxes, attorney's fees and costs of sale as allowed by law; such sale will be made by the sheriff of La Crosse County at public auction to the highest bidder at the east front door of the court house in the city of La Crosse in said county on the twenty-fifth day of August, 1909, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

Dated July 12th, 1909.

HELEN M. NICHOLS, Mortgagee.

McCONNELL & SCHWEIZER, Attorneys.

CLASSY FIELD AT HOMEWARD TODAY

CHICAGO, July 26.—The classiest field that ever started in the event was on hand today when the eleventh annual western amateur golf championship matches began at the Homewood Country club links. Warren K. Wood of Homewood and Ned Sawyer of Wheaton were the first pair to tee off and in pairs the remainder of the 126 entrants followed at intervals of three minutes.

The qualifying round is being played today and it was evident at the outset that the players would have to present a fine exhibition to survive that round. It is believed that the outside figure in the qualifying round will be 167.

FLANAGAN MAKES A HAMMER RECORD

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 26.—Utting loose with a new world's record of 194 feet and 4 inches in the hammer throw, John Flanagan set off the fireworks at the annual Connecticut Clan-na-Gael track and field meet here today. After this new world's record was created, the distance was measured by the city engineer and the hammer measured by the city sealer of weights and measures, and no doubt is felt that the record will stand. The former record of 182 feet was made by Flanagan on June 24 at American League park, New York.

INCREASE EXPRESS TAXES $100,000

PIERRE, S. D., July 26.—The state assessment board has completed its work of assessing express companies and has increased their assessments by nearly $100,000. The American Express is placed at $171,453, an increase of $40,000 over last year; the Wells-Fargo, not listed at all last year, is placed at $200,000; the United States, which was assessed at $150,000 last year, is down to $50,000, and the Adams Express is placed at $35,462, an increase of $2,000.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 25.—The stock market opened irregularly. St. Paul rose 1-2 but Rock Island preferred lost three fourths of its opening gain of 7-8. Southern Pacific, Steel Common, Anaconda, Reading and Pennsylvania declined from 1-4 to 1-2 at the opening but Union Pacific, Atchison, New York Central, Interborough-Metropolitan, Pressed Steel, Washab preferred, R. I. common and American Locomotive were firm. At the end of fifteen minutes' dealing the market continued somewhat spotty.

11 a. m.—In the first hour trading was dull. Reading was firmer and rallied 3-4 per cent. Smelting gained a substantial fraction. An advance in Rock Island of nearly one point invited profit taking and all the improvement was lost shortly after the opening. By the end of the first hour an undercurrent of strength became apparent. In government bonds, the three declined 1-4 point; other bonds were firm.

Noon.—The volume of dealings in stock up to noon was considerably below Saturday. A decline in Steel common of 3-4 from the opening price was the feature in the second hour. In the general market such tendency as appeared was upward. 2 p. m.—Shortly before 2 o'clock the movement of prices changed somewhat abruptly, being influenced by weakness in United States Steel common. The general list receded all along the line.

Chicago Livestock

UNION STOCKYARDS, Ill., July 26.—Cattle, receipts, 17,000; steady. beefs, $4.50 to $7.50; Texas, $4.00 to $5.70; western, $4.00 to $5.75; stockers and feeders, $3.00 to $5.10; cows and heifers, $2.50 to $6.20; calves, $5.00 to $8.50.

Chicago Grain. CHICAGO, July 26.—Wheat opening was 1-2 to 7-8 off for September but commission buying on the slump was good and the market rallied to within 1-4 of Saturday's close. Corn started sharply lower for September. Oats steady to 1-2 lower, but market was well supported. Provisions slow and a shade easier.

NOT TOO LATE TO ENTER TRIBUNE CONTEST

ONLY FIRST LIST OF CONTESTANTS HAS BEEN PUBLISHED—MORE TO BE ADDED LATER

NOW IS THE TIME TO ENTER THE RACE

$3,500 IN PRIZES ARE OFFERED ABSOLUTELY
FREE — VOTES AND NOMINATIONS
ARE GRATIS

The great $3,500 voting contest of The Tribune will soon be under way, but it is not too late to send in nominations. Saturday the first list of candidates was printed, and if your name was not among those presented, cut out the nomination ballot in tonight's issue of The Tribune, fill it out with the name of yourself or a friend whom you wish to nominate, and mail or bring to the Contest Manager. No handicap exists.

With the nomination you present, 1,000 votes are issued to your credit. You begin on an equal basis with the other contestants, and the thousands of dollars in valuable awards await you at the end of the race. This is an event in the history of Wisconsin Journalism. Two automobiles, four Haines Bros. pianos, valued at $400 each, four $100 diamond rings, four $50 bracelets and four purses of gold of $25 each, are given away to the contestants successful in this great popularity contest. Votes are issued for subscriptions to The Tribune obtained for arrears or in advance. The schedule of votes on monthly and yearly subscriptions appears in The Tribune each night. Scan it and see where your opportunity lies. If there is anything pertaining to it which you do not understand, come in person or write the Contest Manager, and full information and data will be given you. Few of the candidates have inaugurated, as yet, an active campaign. The race is just beginning, and you are invited to participate if you would win for the least effort, the greatest prize.

Many Nominations Coming.
Many new nominations have been received since Saturday, and these names have been added to the list in today's paper. The list will undoubtedly grow from day to day.

A steady increase of votes for those who have resolved to win one of the eighteen prizes offered by The Tribune.

Readers of this paper and friends of the candidates can help their favorites by very little trouble on their part. To cut the coupons from The Tribune is a small thing, but it may be the means by which some lady will win an automobile or one of the many other valuable prizes.

Votes Are Free.
The votes in this contest are free. Each issue of The Tribune contains a coupon good for five votes. These when filled out, and sent to the Contest Manager will strengthen yours or the standing of your favorite candidate. Remember that 1,000 votes are placed to your credit in the nomination blank. Add to this the hundreds of free votes printed daily in The Tribune and you have an idea of the generous offer being made. People subscribing and paying their subscriptions, also old subscribers paying arrears or prepaying their subscriptions, will receive a special vote coupon which can be voted at any time during the contest.

Standings Published Daily.
The standing of the contestants will be changed from day to day as to the number of votes received. The ballot box will close each day at noon for the standings to be printed in the next day's paper. The votes appearing today represent the standing of the candidates at noon Saturday.

Open Evenings.
For the benefit of those who are not able to call at the contest department's office during business hours, this department will be open every evening.

WISCONSIN NEWS

FIRST GRAN JURY INDICTS OFFICIALS

RHINELANDER, Wis., July 26.—The first grand jury, which has been in session since July first, finished its labors today.

The following indictments were returned after a malfeasance in office on the part of town officials, the maximum penalty in each case being one year's imprisonment and $500 fine on each count: Town of Pelican, B. N. Moran, Jerry Driscoll, Joseph Habinger, H. E. Knapp, Fred Rusell and Phillip Dawson; Town of Minocqua, Thomas M. Bulger, D. L. Jenkinson, David Jossart, F. L. Schilling and Amy Nick; Town of Newbold, Henry Wubker, George Craw and Mike Urbatis.

The indictments range from one to three with from three to thirteen counts in each case. Three other indictments were returned for felony, one for bribery and two for keeping disorderly houses, but the names in these cases are not available until the warrants are received.

REGENTS SELECT EAU CLAIRE SCHOOL SITE

MADISON, Wis., July 26.—A committee consisting of Theodore Kronshage of Milwaukee, C. H. Crownhart of Superior, C. D. McFarland of Stevens Point, and John Harrington of Oshkosh, members of the state board of normal school regents, and Secretary William Kittle of the board will meet at Eau Claire Tuesday to select a site for a new state normal school which it is proposed to erect in that city.

The legislature at its recent session authorized the board of regents to select a site, providing that Eau Claire pay the cost. The city hopes that after presenting a site, the next legislature will appropriate money for erecting a suitable building and maintaining a school.

LABOR MEETING AT KENOSHA IS QUIET

KENOSHA, Wis., July 26.—The renewed demonstrations in the labor troubles which were expected to follow the socialist meeting held Sunday afternoon failed to develop and the meeting itself was as harmless as a Sunday school picnic. Notwithstanding the fact that the men had been warned to keep away from the meeting by the priests in the churches, there was nothing of an anarchistic nature at the gathering. It was attended by a company of possibly 100 men, women and children and there were no fiery speakers or no attempts to rouse the men to renew the strike.

LEANS ON PICKET FENCE; STRANGLER

MILWAUKEE, July 26.—His neck wedged tightly between the pickets of a fence, the corpse of William Lenz, aged 45 years, was found in front of the residence at 722 Humbolt avenue, Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. Lenz had evidently been strangled.

The coroner and police believe that death was accidental. Late Saturday night, George Tschowaki, night patrolman for the Chicago and North-Western road, saw Lenz hanging over the fence half asleep.

LEANS FROM TRAIN, HEAD STRIKES POLE

MILWAUKEE, July 26.—Fred P. Nelson boarded a Milwaukee-Northwestern car at Brown Deer for Milwaukee. As the car started, he leaned out from a rear platform to look ahead. His head struck an iron pole supporting trolley wires, his skull being fractured.

Sunday night Nelson had not regained consciousness and it is feared that he will die. He has a family.

NEW OIL STORAGE TANKS AT PORTAGE

TOMAH, Wis., July 26.—The Standard Oil Company has nearly completed the reconstruction of its plant for the storage and distribution of oil at this station. There are two large iron storage tanks placed on heavy concrete piers placed close to the railroad track, so that oil can be pumped directly from the cars into them. The larger tank, for kerosene, holds 30,000 gallons, and the smaller tank, for gasoline, holds 18,000 gallons.

The pumps are placed in an iron covered building some distance from the tanks, connected only by pipes. In this building the distributing wagons are loaded.

The lot is to be fenced and graded and the plant will no longer be an unsightly or dangerous place. It would not be a source of danger even in case buildings near it should burn. The plans were approved by the state fire marshal, who came here and made a personal inspection.

More Brick Paving.
Tomah is to have 3 1/4 more blocks of brick pavement. It has been decided by the council to pave with brick Monroe street, from the east line of Superior avenue by Butt's furniture store, west three blocks to Hollister avenue, and also the half block of street south of the Tomah Cash Store.

To Improve Library.
Plans have been made to refloor the library with hard wood very soon. The carpenters have been engaged, and are only waiting for a rainy day when they cannot work out of doors.

Mitchell-Kuehn Wedding.
Mr. Arnold Kuehn and Miss Anna Mitchell, daughter of Br. Wm. Mitchell, were married on Wednesday, July 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. J. G. Glasser, of the German Lutheran church, officiating. They expect to make their future home here.

Tomah Briefs.
Miss Ethel Church who has been visiting here with Miss Hazel Elwell for some time, left for her home in Milwaukee Saturday. Miss Elwell accompanies her to make a few weeks' visit.

Mr. C. S. Tarbox and son Verne left for the west Saturday morning. J. A. Cramer is building a new house on Hollister avenue.

The sky clouded up Thursday morning and everybody thought we would get a good rain. But after an attempt at sprinkling the weather cleared up and looked as bright as ever. It looks as though the drought will continue. We would have been willing to share water with Duluth.

Miss Ruth Hamilton of Two Rivers is visiting her friend, Miss Laura Bosshard.

Miss Hazel Squier returned Sunday from her trip to Augusta.

Mrs. J. B. McMullin accompanied her husband on his weekly business trip this week.

Mr. Ned Lombard arrived from the west extension late last week. He expects to remain here about two months.

The Tomah band gave a concert in the park Friday evening.

Mrs. Walter Warren and daughters, of Fox Lake, visited relatives in this city for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hollister and grand children, Harold and Ethel Mason, spent a few days at their cottage on Farr Creek last week.

Mrs. Clara Shackley, of La Crosse, was in Tomah for a short visit on Thursday last.

Jesse Melnacke has purchased a new motorcycle.

The new Andres hardware store is now under construction again, the work having been delayed for a few weeks.

Mr. Stanley Squier returned home from New Mexico last week. He has been away for over a year, and is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rowland and Mr. Roberts of Chicago, auditor for the C. A. Goodyear Co. left Sunday in their auto for Chicago.

Mr. John Bettinger of the Tomah Cash Mercantile Co. was in New York and Chicago last week, in the interests of that store.

Mr. Emory Holmes visited with friends here Friday.

Mr. W. T. Jackson and Charles Ducklow were here from Wilton on business Friday.

The Baptist church had its annual Sunday school picnic at Flora Dell Tuesday. About fifty were in attendance.

Summer school closed Friday with an attendance of 106. It will be followed by the institute, and it is expected that there will be 150 present.
